ARE DEMOCRATS NO LONGER.

A List of Leading Democrats of Mercer County, this State, who Have Recently Joined the Republican Party -- There

The following is an editorial in the Mingo Circulator, published at Williamson, W. Va. It tells an eloquent story which can be told of many other coun ties in the state and shows how little there is in the boasts of the Democratic organ in this city, which is only whiatling to keep up its courage and to prevent its disrupted party from growing vent its disrupted party from growing discouraged. The Circulator says:

"Apropos to the number of persons who are becoming disgusted with the free trade fallacies of the Democracy, is given below a list of twenty prominent Democrats of Mercer county who have rectnly cut loose from the dying Democracy and enlisted under the bauner of the Republican party. This list includes only a part of the men of public prominence and does not contain any of the thousand and more private citizens who have, within the past three or four who have, within the past three or four years, changed their political affiliawho have, within the past, three or four years, changed their political affiliations.

"Senator Mate Mahood, whose successor in the state senate is to be elected next November, and who was elected four years ago as a Democrat, has declared himself a Republican. Mr. Mahood is a lawyer and is regarded as one of the most intellectual men in Mercer county.

"Dr. J. W. Hale, of the law trm of Johnston & Hale, was the law partner of Judge McClaugheety fhen the latter was elected to the judgeship. The clitages of Mercer county consider Dr. Hale as decidedly the ablest lawyer in the county, and as a leading citizen in all local affairs he stands without a peer. He says he has all of free trade he wants. Webb Hale, who is a son of Dr. Hale, and a member of the same law firm, and who is a promising young lawyer of excellent character, has joined the ranks of the party which stands for presperity and progress.

"H. W. Straley, Jr., who is a member of the same law firm, and in the same law firm, and is a candidate for state senate to succeed his brother-inlaw, Senator Mahood, is a prominent and promising young lawyer and has been a Republican since 1822.

"A. W. Straley, sr., who is the father of the above, is a wealthy business man and banker of Mercer county and has been a Republican since 1822.
